

May 29, 2018

Deans

Gary Perry, Provost and
Vice President for Academic Affairs

(Supersedes all prior memoranda, including September 8, 2015)

In addition to regional accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), academic programs at Florida Atlantic University are currently individually accredited by outside accrediting organizations. In addition, several programs are in the process of considering initial accreditation. It is important that the Office of the Provost be involved in accreditation procedures and processes, as follows:

6. Copies of all correspondence and documentation received by the President, the Provost, the Dean and/or the Chair/Director of the program from the accrediting organization are to be sent to the Provost's designee. It is the responsibility of the Provost's designee to insure that the Provost,